Small government ideology violated by excessive regulation and personal biases
Patrick funded biased, flawed studies misrepresenting public opinion on THC to justify crackdown			Welcome and host introduction by Russell Dowin and Rachel
Texas jails nearing capacity, yet Patrick prioritizes criminalizing cannabis users rather than addressing broader criminal justice issues	Timothy and Jesse outline Patrick's betrayal of conservative principles:		Upcoming guest: Timothy Mabry, Republican candidate against Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick
Patrick's dismissive attitude toward public opinion ("If you don't like it, vote me out") deemed arrogant and irresponsible			Additional contributors: Jesse Niss (Reggie and Dro), potential call-in by Jay Magcguire from San Marcos
	Hosts reference credible polls from University of			Location: Shiner Saloon, downtown Austin
	Houston and national conservative pollsters invalidating Patrick's claims	Critique of Lieutenant Governor Dan		Date: October 25th, hours 8 PM to 2 AM (rooftop and
Republican primary voter base (~1.8-1.9 million) effectively determines statewide election outcomes		Patrick's Governance and Betrayal of Texans Introduction and Blazefest Announcement		Activities include speed rolling contest at 10:15 PM, smoke cannon competition at 11:15 PM, live music
Primary challenges against incumbents like Patrick are healthy democratic competition versus billionaire-funded predetermined elections			Blazefest event details:	performances by Micah Shalom, Dub Ekis, and Amplified Heat Vendors/supporters: Stink Fillet, Crafty Botanicals,
Patrick's cannabis "Reefer Madness" style rhetoric is hyperbolic and counterproductive but enabled by financial advantage	Jay Magcguire, political editor, joins to contextualize importance of Republican primary in Texas:		Dama Botanicals, 3G Cannabis, Dope Pros, Dope Daries, Looper, 1836Ratom, Savage Tattoos (tattooing on site), Take Flight Seltzers
Magcguire welcomes Timothy Mabry and new candidate AJ Velador as challengers bringing fresh competition				Emphasis on the event blending cannabis culture with Halloween festivities
Expresses disgust at Patrick's duplicity and misinformation tactics targeting the cannabis industry that he helped deregulate poorly			Planned awards presentation the event, pending delivery of the event of community er	of trophies
Petition window: November 8 to December 8, 2025			celebration of the cannabis p	plant and culture
Need 5,000 valid signatures from Republican primary voters in Texas or pay a filing fee of $3,800; Timothy aims for 10,000 signatures to preclude challenges			Texas, Republican primary so 2026	Native of San Antonio
Signatures must be collected in person, with signers providing full name, date of birth, and registered voting address; notarization of collector signature required on submission	Timothy Mabry explains official ballot access requirements:		Personal background:	US Navy veteran (2011-2013) Fire officer, professional speaker, business leader,
Digital signatures not permitted by Texas State Ethics Commission				Former Pack Member at Hallmark University
Collection efforts underway at events and via allies including Reggie and Dro stores and Blazefest				In January 2024, called to serve as "shepherd" during church service
Staff and volunteers trained on compliance reading required informational statements to signers to ensure legality		Blaze Weekly News Podcast Episode 237 Interview with Timothy Mabry: Candidacy and Political Background	Motivation and spiritual expe	Experienced a vivid vision involving a glowing figure identified as Jesus, followed by an intense "download" of information including prophecy
	Jesse Niss confirms store managers and retailers are actively collecting signatures and plan to expand efforts via grassroots mobilization in cannabis retail community	Campaign Logistics: Ballot Access and Signature Gathering	candidacy:	Decision to run was sudden and divinely inspired, contrasting typical years-long campaign preparations
	Jay Magcguire explains legal challenges to petitions often driven by election lawyers seeking signature irregularities; thus, surplus signatures ensure compliance		Importance of fresh conserva young blood in Texas politics and Timothy
	Recent Texas voter roll controversies mentioned (2700 alleged illegal registrations), highlighting election scrutiny context		Official campaign website: tii	imothy4tx.com Personal vendetta against cannabis after Texas
Campaign website: timothy4tx.com				Senate and federal legislation enabled industry growth
Email: campaign@timothy4tx.com Retailers interested in supporting signature	Contact info for campaign and signature collection:		Timothy details Lieutenant G aggressive opposition to the	Industry impact: over 8,000 companies and 50,000 jobs at risk collection encouraged to contact campaign	Final remarks from Timothy Mabry about building a		industry:	2021 data: approximately 3.5 million hemp product users in Texas (about 10% of state population), equating to nearly 20% of registered voters grassroots movement emphasizing "we the people, not me the powerful" Jesse Niss invites cannabis industry and Texas			Criticism of Patrick's efforts to criminalize this large percentage of Texas voters as unjust and unfounded supporters to rally behind Timothy's campaign, highlighting shared interests in freedom and cannabis industry survival Jay Magcguire encourages voter engagement in the		Discussion of cannabis as a n significant benefits, supporte (nicotine receptors and endo and political discourse include President Trump	ted by human biology ocannabinoid system)
	crucial Republican primary as key determinant of Texas political leadership Hosts promote Blazefest event attendance,	Cannabis Industry and Political Challenges in Texas	Host and guest emphasize th legalization with conservativ liberty encourage community participation, and announce upcoming cannabis industry events such as Texas THC Challenge for best flower submissions	Closing Discussion and Event Promotion	Jesse Niss of Reggie and Dro campaign and highlights can cross-partisan "purple issue"	nnabis as a unifying, Announcement of Blaze Awards winners and future recognition events discussed Practical details for listeners to connect with		Jesse praises Timothy's into opposition as personal vende evidence-based	tegrity, describes political detta-driven rather than campaign and cannabis community: websites, social media, event info Podcast sign-off with reminders to "stay informed,		Multiple polls indicate overw national support (around 789 legislation, contrasting with	8%-80%) for marijuana stay bold, and stay blazed" at the upcoming Blazefest on October 25th at Shiner Saloon downtown Austin, 8 PM to 2 AM		surveys and pushback		